The only legal answer which constables and churchwardens may give to articles inquiring into any of His Majesty's ecclesiastical or civil courts; or to any justice upon the Statutes 1. Eliz. 2. and 3. Jac. 4. concerning the absence of persons from their parish-church in a letter to a private friend, inquiring on the behalf of his friend, the sense and import of those statutes in this case; and whether officers can be required by a particular oath, to give in answers to such articles, and how often. London, 1690.
